

ISP – Journal Article Critique Rubric

ISP Components	Possible Marks
Application
Summary <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Summary of background information, methods and main conclusions.</li> <li>• The summary is concise, well explained and easy to understand</li> <li>• The summary is written in a logical manner</li> </ul>	0	2	4	6
Critique of the Introduction: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Critically analyze the background information using the guiding questions provided.</li> </ul>	0	1	2	3
Critique of the Methods and Results <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Critically analyze the methods used and results that were gathered from the experiment.</li> <li>• Answer the guiding questions provided</li> </ul>	0	2	4	6
Critique of the Discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Critically analyze the analysis of the results and main conclusion drawn.</li> <li>• Answer the guiding questions provided</li> </ul>	0	1	2	3
Critique of Overall Article <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Critique the overall structure and style of the article.</li> <li>• Critique the purpose of the research and its relevance to today's society and further research</li> </ul>	0	1	2	3
Communication
Style <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Neatly presented and free of spelling and grammatical errors</li> <li>• Presentation: the information was well communicated and simplified in a way that peers could understand</li> </ul>	0	1	2	3	4
Comments:
TOTAL:      Application:                      /21      Communication:                      /4					